The Embassy of India presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Islamic Republic of Iran and has the honor to inform that Government of India has announced Indian Council for Cultural Relations (ICCR) General Scholarship Scheme (GSS) for the academic year 2022-23. These are fully funded scholarships including tuition fees, monthly stipend etc. This year Government of India has announced eight (08) scholarships for the meritorious Iranian students who are interested in pursuing higher studies in India.

In this context, the announcement of the scholarship along with important instructions is attached herewith. Esteemed Ministry is requested to forward the same to the interested students. It may be noted that the decision on a candidate's eligibility for admission under the ICCR GSS for the academic year 2022-23 solely lies with the University concerned.

The Embassy of India avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Islamic Republic of Iran, the assurances of its highest consideration.
